Wed., May 20 New Zoo and WBAY-TV

Tour WBAY-TV to see just what a TV station looks like. Have your questions ready. We'll enjoy lunch at Old County Buffet then venture on "the wild side" to the N.E.W. Zoo - a natural adventure. It's an awesome place to escape. Take a picture of your favorite zoo animal.

Cost: $43.00 (includes bus, lunch, zoo fee) $10 at registration; deadline May 1.

Lv MSC: 7:30am Ret MSC: 3:30pm approx.

Wed., June 10 "Holy Land", Brats & Dogs

Travel to the Siberian Outpost in Malone where to observe a master at work - training dogs for dog sled racing. Then we tour the enchanting Villa Loretta retirement complex in Mt. Calvary - home to Sisters, lay staff and a myriad of live critters. We'll enjoy a hayride, a Ho-Down lunch and have an opportunity to visit their Nun-Better bakery. Then we'll stop at Hoff's United Foods in Brownsville where we can choose from 26 different flavored brats (you can buy 1 or 21) or other award winning meats. Before we head home we'll make a stop at Heavy Critters for a chance to explore different and unique ornamental designed "critters".

Cost: $48.00 (includes lunch, coach and hayride) $10 at registration/pay in full by June 1

Lv MSC: 7:30am Ret MSC: 4:00pm approx.

Wed., July 8 Around Town Tour -

With Nancy Barker as our fearless guide and local historian, we'll head north - north of Appleton out toward Macville to see "what's been happening" in that neck of the woods. Lunch enroute. Then we'll head home via the Greenville area and take a peek at that metropolis. Nancy, of course, will fill us in on the "stories".

Cost: $20.00 (school bus and lunch included). Pay in full at registration. Departure and return times to be announced at later date.

Wed., Sept. 30 Door County Tour

This is what you have to look forward to: Candleworks - demonstration and your own candle dipping; Tannenbaum - shopping; Sequist Orchards - jam, jellies, and apples; Al Johnsons - lunch and goats (lunch is Swedish meatballs, mashed potatoes, tossed salad, cherry cheese pie); Sister Bay - shopping or strolling; Door Peninsula Winery - tour and tasting.

Cost $45.00 (includes bus, food, tips) $10 at registration; pay in full by Sept. 16
